

I Newcomb Dyer of the County of De Kalb and State of Missouri do make publish and declare this to be my last will and testament.

I give devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife Harriet E. Dyer all of my real Estate and personal property of every kind and wherever situated.

She to have the entire control of the same and to receive and use as she may think best all the income from the same during her natural life.

Should my said wife die before our two youngest children Blanch and John arrive at full age I desire that they shall receive $300.00 in order that they may have the same advantages of education that our older children have had.

At the death of my said wife I desire that all my property then remaining shall descend in equal shares to our children Foddyce N. Dyer, Alden M. Dyer, Albert B. Dyer, Florence M. White, Mary E. White, Emma B. Dyer, Blanch M. E. Dyer^{2d} and John Dyer.

I nominate and appoint my said wife Harriet E. Dyer as Executor of this my last will and testament without bond.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 5th day of October 1897.

N. Dyer.

Signed and declared by the said Newcomb Dyer as his last will and testament in presence of us who at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names hereto as witnesses.

Proof of Will.

In the Probate Court of De Kalb County Missouri.

Be it remembered that on this 12th day of October, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Ninety Seven, before me W. H. Rogers, Judge of the Probate Court, held in and for De Kalb and State of Missouri, personally appeared C. C. Healy and Della Healy, who being duly sworn upon their oaths, depose say that they were present and saw Newcomb Dyer sign the foregoing instrument, of date Oct 5th 1897, purporting to be the last will and testament of him the said Newcomb Dyer and heard him publish and declare the same to be his last will and testament, and that at the time of signing the same, the said Newcomb Dyer was of sound and disposing mind and that these deponents subscribed their names thereto as witnesses to the same in the presence of the testator, and of each other, and at the request of the said testator who was more than 21 years of age at the date of so declaring and signing said instrument.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, W. H. Rogers Judge of the Probate Court the day and year first aforesaid

W. H. Rogers
