Notes for WILLIAM PICKNEY SHAW:

Written by Willie Belle Shaw Chick in 1967:

William Pinckney Shaw was a son of Thomas Lewis David William Shaw. He was born in 1925 in Fairfield, Bedford Co., Tenn. and died in Sweet Springs, MO in 1895. He came with his parents T.L.D.W. and Eliza Shaw to Ray County, Missouri in 1836. In 1847 he married Julia Anna Waterman, daughter of Heman Waterman and Ruby Smalley Waterman, who came with their family to Richmond, Ray County, Missouri in 1838. William Pinckney and Julia Anna Shaw had 6 children. One of the sons was William Lucian Shaw(1st), my father. He told us, his children, that his father William Pinckney owned many slaves and that his mother Julia Anna spent much of her time visiting the slave quarters, carrying food and medicine to the sick and ailing and teaching the children to read and spell. Julia Anna Waterman Shaw, my grandmother, was through her mother Ruby Smalley Waterman a descendent of Stephen Hopkins born in England in 1570. In 1608, he sailed in the "Sea Venture" to the English Colony of Jamestown, Virginia, with a fleet of several other ships - the Sea Venture being the Flagship - with the new governor of the Colony on board as well as Admiral Somers. The Sea Venture was wrecked at Bermuda, which was uninhabited, but the whole Company of 150 men, women and children were saved when the ship jammed in the rocks. They saved everything but the hulk. They rebuilt and had two vessels in about nine months, so sailed on to Jamestown (1609). they found things so bad that the people there were about to start back to England. They actually did set out, but met Lord Delaware just coming in with supplies and more colonists, and were persuaded to turn back and start fresh. Stephen Hopkins stayed among them and helped Lord Delaware start the first permanent settlement at Jamestown (1610), then went back to England where he had a wife and two children, Constance and Giles. Later he came back with his second wife and two children on the Mayflower. Before the ship reached Plymouth his wife gave birth to a son and was one of the three women to survive the first winter after the landing.

He married HORTENSE ARVILLA PEEBLES^{5,6} 22 Mar 1875 in Maryville, Nodaway, Missouri⁷, daughter of CHARLES PEEBLES and LYDIA ALLEN. She was born 17 Jan 1852 in W. Martinsburg, NY, USA^{8,9}, and died 13 Jan 1936 in Kansas City, Jackson, MO, USA¹⁰.

Notes for WILLIAM LUCIEN SHAW:

Written by Willie Belle Shaw Chick (1984): William Lucien Shaw was a son of William Pinckney Shaw and Julia Anna Waterman Shaw. He was born in Ray Co., MO on Feb 29, 1852. He married Hortense Arvilla Peebles 22 Mar 1875 in Maryville, MO. Hortense Arvilla Peebles was the daughter of Charles Eggleston Peebles and Lydia Allen Peebles of Martinsburg, Lewis Co., NY. Hortense Arvilla Peebles was born in 1852. Her mother Lydia Allen Peebles was a direct descendent of Wallace Allen, a brother of Ethan Allen, one of the Green Mountain boys of Vermont. William Lucian Shaw met Hortense Arvilla when she was about 20 years old when she came to visit an older sister in Maryville, MO - Marietta Bariteau. She found her sister in poor health so decided to stay to help care for her. While there, she met the handsome Lucian Shaw and about three years later in 1875 they were married in the Bariteau home. Their first home was in Phelps City, MO where their first three children were born - Ruby, Lester, and Irma. The other four children were born in Gallatin, MO - Austin, Robert, Willie Belle, and Donovan. The family moved to Kansas City, MO in 1898. The younger children Robert, Willie Belle and Donovan went to school and finished their formal education there.

Our father, William Lucian had very droll sense of humor. He told us lots of tales about his early life. One of his stories was about his sister Pinckney. It was during the Civil War when the fighting had extended as far west as Missouri and Kansas. William Pinckney Shaw and his family were living near Richmond, MO with their six children. One day a troop of Union Soldiers came by their farm house and demanded food as they tromped into the house in their muddy boots. Their parents were way out in the field some place, and Pinckney, who was about 15 or 16 at the time, was doing the house work and looking after the younger children. She told the soldiers that she could give them only corn bread. They said that would be fine if she made plenty of it. They sat around in the parlor on the best furniture in their muddy boots and dirty uniforms which incensed Pinckney. She was hopping mad when she got out the ingredients for the corn bread. So instead of using milk she stirred it up with the dishwater left from the washing the breakfast dishes. The soldiers left after they were full of corn bread and the children had a big laugh when she told them about it, as did her mother and father. Later on in the day the troops came back by the farm and "Pinkie" sat on the fence waving the Confederate flag. Some of the men broke ranks to chase her, but she ran and hid in the corn field.

My mother, Arvilla, used to tell this story on my father. In Gallatin, MO we had a large house on quite a large lot with a barnyard where they had a cow or two and some chickens. After my father came in from milking one afternoon, my mother reminded him that he was to go to town for some feed. He finished his dinner, changed his clothes and was all ready to leave, but couldn't find his hat. He had my mother and older sisters look everywhere, but it was nowhere to be found. My mother suggested that he wear his good hat, but he said, "Dad blame it, I won't wear my Sunday hat to the feed store." the next morning when he went to the barn to milk the cow he found his old hat where he had put it the night before - still hanging on old Bess's horn.

I was only 6 years old when we moved in 1898 to Kansas City, MO, but our family kept in touch with their many friends in Gallatin and their children became my friends and still are. My father died in 1923, and my mother in 1936 in Kansas City. They are buried in the Brown Cemetery in Gallatin where their infant son, Austin, was buried many years ago. Henry Chick, who is my husband, and I drive to Gallatin quite often on Memorial Day, and also to visit some of our friends.

One source says he died between 1926-1930 in Rose Pinse, LA. Buried in Gallatin, MO. Lucien was employed with the Kansas City Southern Railroad. On a picture postcard dated 25 Jul 1923 sent to his son, Robert, Lucien described the KC Southern depot in the background as "my depot" which was in Vivian, Louisiana.

Written by Willie Belle Shaw Chick in 1967:

Lester Reeves Shaw was born in Phelps City, MO in 1878. He died in Berkeley, CA 1954. He was the second child of William Lucian and Hortense Arvilla Peebles Shaw. He was about 20 years old when the family moved to Kansas City. After he finished school he worked as a telegraph operator, having learned telegraphy from his father who had been a railroad station agent in Gallatin, MO. Later in his early twenties he got a job with the Telephone Co. in Kansas City. In 1904, at age twenty-six, he married Maud Forbes of Kansas City. She was somewhat frail and after several years she was told by her doctor that she had advanced TB. He advised that she go to a warm, dry climate. Lester took her to new Mexico where she stayed a year or so, then went to a fine Sanitarium in Denver, Colorado. Lester had asked and was transferred by the Telephone Co. to Denver so he and Maud's parents moved there so she could be with them. She died there in 1912. Near the end of 1912 he married Mary Williams Mitchell who also worked for the Telephone Co, I think. She was a widow with a small son, Ted. Lester was transferred again, this time to San Francisco. They made their home across the Bay in Oakland where their first child

Reeves Jr. was born in 1913, their second child, Alice Louise, born 1916 and third child, William Lucian, born in 1921 was born in Berkeley.
