

I, Alfred C. Anderson of DeKalb County and State of Missouri being of sound mind and memory do make and publish this my last Will and Testament (Item first) I will that all my just debts be first paid (Item second) I will and devise that after all my just debts be paid as in Item first all Real estate, personal property, monies and chattels to my beloved wife Eliza Jane Anderson to have and use until our youngest child Arthur F. Anderson shall arrive at the age of Twenty one, and should my said wife remain my widow and unmarried, I will that she shall still have for her own exclusive use all my said property so long as she shall remain single, but should my said wife be married when said Arthur F. Anderson shall become twenty one years of age or marries at any time thereafter then and in that case said above willed property shall be divided equally between my two children Charles and Arthur alike & eaching such part thereof as would under the Statutes and Laws of this State (of Missouri) belong to my said wife as my widow.

(Item third) I further will that my said beloved wife Eliza Jane Anderson shall be appointed executrix of this my last will by the Court of Probate, to execute the bequests therein. I hereby revoke all former wills by me made. In witness whereof I have put my hand & seal at DeKalb County aforesaid this fourth day of November A. D. 1885.
