- I William Corn Esq. of the County of DeKalb, in the State of Missouri, do make and publish this my last Will & Testament.
- 1st I give and devise unto my beloved wife Susanah Corn all, and every my Messuages, lands, Tenements & Hereditaments with the Appurtenances whereof I am seized in fee, situated, lying & being in the State of Missouri in the County of DeKalb, and now in the possession of me the said William Corn Esq. as aforesaid, to have and to hold all and every my said personal property now owned or possessed by me, all and every of the said Messuages lands, Tenements and hereditaments with the Appurtenances to her the said Susanah Corn to her heirs and my heirs by her the said Susanah Corn, with this express Condition That all of the within and foregoing will is to extend to her the said Susanah Corn during her natural life or widowhood & unto this and this only.
- 2^d It is my Will that in Case of the death or marriage of the said Susanah Corn all of the foregoing mentioned property including real, personal and mixed shall descend equally to each and every of my heirs, in kind, with the expenses and under written provision.
- 3^d As I have heretofore given unto a part of my said Horse Custom sums of money and property in kind as follows, to wit: Unto my son Elias Corn the sum of One Hundred Dollars of lawful money of the United States, and One hundred and twenty ~~five~~ Dollars in personal property. And unto my son Thomas Corn the sum of One Hundred dollars of lawful money of these United States and personal property to the amount of One hundred & twenty Dollars, And my son John Corn the sum of One Hundred and twenty Dollars in personal property, And unto my son David Corn the sum of One Hundred dollars of lawful money of these United States. And the sum of One hundred and twenty dollars in personal property, And unto my son William Corn Jr. the sum of One Hundred dollars of lawful money of these United States. And the sum of One hundred and fifteen dollars in personal property, And unto my daughter Lucinda Corn who has since intermarried with William Holmes the sum of One hundred and fifty five dollars in money and personal property, And unto my son James S. Corn the sum of Two hundred and fifteen dollars in lawful money of these United States. Therefore in order to make my other five heirs equal in my said estate with all of the above heirs that have been mentioned herein heretofore, that is to say, I give and bequeath unto Levi Corn my son the sum of Two Hundred and twenty dollars. And unto my son Benjamin Franklin Corn, And unto my daughter Nancy Elizabeth Corn, And unto my son Francis Marion Corn, And unto my daughter Amie Eliza Corn each and every of my last mentioned heirs the said sum of Two Hundred and twenty Dollars, which said amount of Two Hundred and twenty dollars, it is my Will shall be paid to the said named heirs as soon as each and every of my said last mentioned heirs shall become of age by my Executor to be named hereafter. And further it is my further Will that my daughter Lucinda Holmes shall receive the further sum of Sixty five dollars from my Executor to make her share equal with all the other heirs, which amount I authorize my Executor to pay unto Lucinda Holmes as soon as possible after my death. And that my son John Corn shall receive from my Executor the further sum of One hundred Dollars to make him equal with all my other heirs, provided that in case my said son John Corn shall be alive and properly identify himself as my legal heir, or in case of his death his legal heirs if any such there be 4th In order that the foregoing Will may be fully carried out in every particular according to law, I here appoint as my sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament William R. Swin, hereby revoking all former Wills that may have been made by me. In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 22^d day of September A.D. 1873.
