Recorded March 8th 1882.

J. S. Stevens Judge of Probate.

I, John Gilmore of the County of DeKalb in the State of Missouri, being in feeble health, yet of sound and disposing mind & memory, calling to mind the uncertainty of human life, and the certainty of death, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all former Wills that I may have made.

First

I Will and bequeath unto my beloved wife Rosanna Gilmore all of my property of which I may die seized and possessed, both Real and Personal of every description, to hold use and enjoy during her natural life, Except one Mule which I will and bequeath unto my son Emmett W. Cullen Gilmore as soon as he becomes of age.

2^d

At the death of my wife Rosanna Gilmore it is my Will that all the Real Estate and personal property that may remain after the necessary expenses of supporting and rearing of my three children (yet minors) named respectively Emmett W. Cullen Gilmore, William Edgar Gilmore & Minnie Bell Gilmore, shall become the property of my son William Edgar, absolutely forever. I make this provision for my son William Edgar on account of his Afflicted Condition.

3^d

It is my Will that my wife be and she is hereby appointed Executrix of this my last Will and Testament To carry out the provisions of this my Will.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and Affixed my seal this 10th day of April A.D. 1882 (using Scroll for seal)
