

This 20 day of May 1870
 I Timothy B. Pitcomb being sound of mind but feeble in body <sup>and</sup> not knowing how long I may stay here make the following disposition of my property. To my son E. L. Pitcomb Five dollars To my daughter Albina S. Brown Two hundred dollars To my daughter Lydia B. Dakin One dollar, if her husband had not sent that little note here by note to be sent which had been paid I would have made her equal with Albina After these Legacies shall be paid <sup>and</sup> whatever expenses may occur, the balance of whatever it may consist whether in land and tenements or money household goods or whatever it may consist to belong in right to Stephannie M. <sup>and</sup> Anna M. Pitcomb my youngest daughters to have <sup>and</sup> to hold and to dispose as it may seem to them good provided their mother is to have her living from the property her natural life. That is my wife Mary Pitcomb. I wish to be understood to say that after the paying of these Legacies the division is to be equal between Stephannie <sup>and</sup> Anna
